4. Cut the bread lengthwise and widthwise without cutting through the bottom crust. This can be a little tricky going the second way but the bread is very forgiving.
5. Place load on a foil lined baking sheet.
6. Insert cheese slices between cuts. Pour mushrooms between the cuts. Use your fingers to push the mushrooms down into the loaf.
7. Combine melted butter, onion, and poppy seeds. Drizzle over the bread. Wrap in foil. Place on baking sheet.
8. Bake for 15 minutes at 350°.
9. Unwrap bread and bake 10 more minutes, or until cheese is melted.
