

RED RABBIT

Description

This is comfort food. Amy Konienci and I love this. My mother used to make it for Jackie and me and who knows where the recipe came from, but the Red Rabbit name had to be a version of rarebit. We had a book we loved called The Little Rabbit Who Wanted Red Wings and I wonder if we adapted the name from that.

Summary

Yield: 1

Source: Barbara Mackie

Prep Time: 15 minutes

Category: Lunch

Cuisine: American

Ingredients

- 1 can Campbell's Tomato Soup, the original, not Healthy
- 1/3 can of milk
- 1 egg
- 1/2 cup cheddar cheese, shredded, or more
- 1 sleeve of saltine crackers crushed

Instructions

In a medium saucepan, stir tomato soup, milk and egg together and heat until bubbly. Add cheese and stir to melt. If it is too thick thin with a little more milk.

Crush saltines on a plate and pour Red Rabbit over.

Enjoy!