Instructions

In a food processor, blend the flour gradually into the mashed potatoes. Mix in the egg yolks, one at a time. Then mix in the egg whites, one at a time. Add the heavy cream to the mixture and continue to blend until you reach a pancake batter consistency. Season with the salt, pepper and nutmeg, and mix thoroughly.

Potato Pancakes with Sour Cream and Caviar

Coat a large skillet (or sauté pan) with some of the oil and place over medium-heat. Pour in the potato pancake batter and form silver-dollar sized pancakes (about 1 1/2 inches across). Cook until golden brown and flip pancakes over when bubbles appear on the surface. Cook until golden brown on the second side. Transfer cooked pancakes to a 200° F oven to keep warm. Repeat until all of the potato pancake batter is used, should make between 20 and 30 pancakes.

To serve, place a dollop of sour cream on each potato pancake, and garnish with the caviar and purple onion.

Notes

For variation, crème fraîche can be substituted for the sour cream. Smoked salmon, country ham or sautéed mushrooms can be substituted for the caviar.
