Notes

This is a quick and easy chili that will fool your guest - they'll be thinking you spent the day preparing this meal.

I typically grab fresh salsa in our local Mexican market in the refrigerator section of the store. What you are looking for is a salsa that uses lemon or lime juice and NOT vinegar to keep it fresh.

If you cant find roasted pepper salsa, you might be able to find roasted tomato salsa. Pico de Gallo can be used for a milder version of this recipe
