Shrimp Salad with Herb Dill Dressing

- 1 clove garlic, finely chopped
- 1 tsp dijon mustard
- fresh díll sprigs for garnish

Instructions

Shrimp

Add the white wine, mustard seeds, red pepper flakes, bay leaves and lemon in a large saucepan. Add water to fill the pan 2/3 full. Bring to a full boil over high heat. Add the shrimp and cook for 3 to 4 minutes, until the shrimp have turned pink and no longer translucent. Drain and cool. Discard the bay leaves.

Herb Dill Dressing

In a cruet (or screw-top jar, ball jar), mix the olive oil, red wine vinegar, water, fresh basil, chopped dill, garlic, and Dijon mustard. Shake vigorously to mix well.

Place the shrimp in a large bowl and pour the dressing over the top. Toss well, cover with plastic wrap, and refrigerate until well-chilled.

Salad

Place a mixture of red lettuce leaves on a large serving plate or you can use a large serving bowl. Arrange the sliced red onions, tomato wedges and mushrooms over the lettuce. Place the shrimp mixture
