

Raspberry Lemonade

Description

so sweet and red and just a bit thick from the raspberry purée.

Ingredients

- 1 cup water
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 cup fresh lemon juice
- 1 1/2 cup fresh or frozen raspberries

Instructions

Heat the sugar and water over medium heat, stirring often, in a small saucepan until the sugar has completely dissolved to make a simple syrup.

Puree the raspberries in a blender or food processor and pour in the simple syrup and lemon juice.

Add extra water (or Sprite, if you want it fizzy ) to thin it out to the consistency and flavor that you like.

Run a lemon slice around the rim of your glass, dip the glass in sugar, and serve with ice.

Notes

I've made this a few times since I first saw the recipe.

The first time I just drank it as is, without adding any extra water or other liquid (it was thick and delicious and what you see in the above photos), but the second time I added in some vodka.

At 2pm on a Sunday afternoon. There is no rule written anywhere that says I can't drink in the middle of the day. Quit judging me.

The third time I made this I added an equal amount of Sprite to the lemonade. It was really fun and fizzy and a bit like a raspberry limeade.

Whichever way you make this, it's a perfect drink for summer. Cool, refreshing, and pretty to look at.
