Crispy Choizo Dogs

Description

What goes better with meat than more meat? Nothing! Well, okay, more meat with mustard and onion. Specifically, crispy chorizo nuggets. When you add super crisped bits of spicy, Mexican-style chorizo to the top of grilled hot dogs, it elevates the simple meal from phoned-in to party-fare.

Ingredients

- Freshly Grilled Hot Dogs
- 1/2 lb bulk mexican style chorizo
- Candied Jalapenos

Instructions

Place a heavy-bottomed skillet over medium high heat.

Break up the chorizo with your hands into the hot pan.

Use a sturdy, heat proof spoon to continue breaking up the chorizo into tiny bits as it cooks.

Continue cooking the chorizo past the point of fully-cooked, breaking it continually with the spoon, until it is deeply browned and the bits are crispy.

Use a slotted spoon to transfer the chorizo to a paper towel lined plate to drain, if necessary.

Place each hot dog in a bun, top first with mustard, then crispy chorizo, then onions and candied jalapenos.

Crispy Five-Spice Pork Chops

Description

A relatively short cooking time combined with a coating of five-spice seasoned panko crumbs give these tender, shallow-fried pork chops a deliciously crunchy exterior.

For a complete meal, serve over a bed of Hoisin-Soy Noodles and Sautéed Sesame Spinach (recipes included).

Ingredients

- 4 boneless pork loin pork chops - about 1 pound
- 1 egg
- 1 tbsp milk
- 1 1/4 cup Panko crumbs
- 1 tbsp five spice powder
- 1 1/2 tbsp vegetable oil
- 2 tbsp toasted sesame oil

Instructions

Trim any excess fat from the pork and lightly season both sides with salt and pepper.

Whisk the egg and milk together in a shallow dish. Combine the panko crumbs and five-spice powder on a flat plate and set next to the egg mixture.

Dip each chop into the egg mixture, turning several times to coat. Allow the excess to drip off, then coat the chops in the crumb mixture and transfer to a clean plate.

Heat the vegetable and sesame oils in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Add the chops and cook until lightly browned and crispy, 3 to 4 minutes per side. Transfer to a cutting board, allow to rest for 5 minutes, then slice.

To serve, make a bed of Hoisin-Soy Noodles on each plate, top with a serving of Sesame Spinach and a sliced pork chop.

Makes 4 servings

Recipe Notes:

Five-spice powder is a blend of ground cloves, cinnamon, fennel seed, szechuan peppercorns and star anise. If good and fresh, the flavor is rather intense, so adjust the quantity according to your own taste. We happen to like the full tablespoon.

Notes

Sautéed Sesame Spinach

10 ounces fresh spinach

2 teaspoons vegetable oil

1 teaspoon toasted sesame oil

2 teaspoons toasted sesame seeds

Preparation:

Heat the vegetable and sesame oils in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Add half the spinach, a pinch of salt, half of the sesame seeds and cook, tossing constantly with a pair of tongs until wilted. Transfer to a plate to keep warm and repeat with the remaining spinach.

Makes 4 servings

Pork

Hoisin-Soy Noodles

2 packages (3-ounces each) ramen noodles

2 teaspoons vegetable oil

1 teaspoon toasted sesame oil

3 tablespoons hoisin sauce

1-1/2 tablespoons soy sauce

Preparation:

Discard or save the noodle flavoring packet for another use. Bring a pot of water to a boil and cook the noodles just until tender and drain.

Oven Roasted Pulled Pork

Source: My Gourmet Connection

Description

This recipe requires a lot of cooking time, but the prep time is really minimal. Mix up your rub ingredients, sauce ingredients and coleslaw and you're pretty much done and waiting for the low, slow oven (or slow cooker - see notes) to work its magic on the pork.

Ingredients

- 4 lb Boston Butt Pork Roast
- 1 tbsp olive oil
- 1/3 cup water
- 3 tbsp paprika
- 1 1/2 tbsp salt
- 1 1/2 tbsp sugar
- 2 tsp dry mustard
- 1 tbsp cumin
- 1 tsp pepper
- 1 tbsp garlic powder
- 1/2 tbsp onion powder
- 1 tsp cayenne

Instructions

Preparation:

Preheat the oven to 225°F.

Prepare the pork:

Prepare the rub by combining the paprika, salt, sugar, mustard, cumin, pepper, garlic and onion powders and cayenne in a small bowl.

Trim any large pieces of exterior fat from the pork if desired.

Pat the rub mixture on all sides of the pork and place uncovered, in a dutch oven.

Roast uncovered for 1 hour.

Remove the pork from the oven, brush with the olive oil, add the water, cover and return to the oven for approximately 5 hours longer.

At this point the pork should be very tender and pull apart easily with a fork.

Total roasting time runs between 90 and 100 minutes per pound.

Transfer the pork to a large platter and allow to cool enough to handle.

With two dinner forks, shred the meat into bite-sized pieces, removing any large chunks of fat in the process.

Notes

Serve with BBQ sauce on my site

Serve with Coleslaw

Slow Cooker Instructions:

Pork

You can cook the pork in a slow cooker instead of the oven if desired. Simply add a layer of sliced onion to the bottom of the cooker, put the rub-coated pork on top and add the water. Cover and cook on low for 8 to 10 hours (depending on the size of your roast), or until the pork is tender and pulls apart easily with a fork.

Rustic Garlic-Balsamic Pork Chops

Description

Nice, thick, bone-in pork loin chops are so flavorful on their own they don't need too much in the way of seasoning. Here I have pan-seared the chops in garlic-scented oil, and added just a splash of balsamic vinegar to give them a little bit of zing.

Ingredients

- 4 1 inch bone in pork loin chops
- 6 clove garlic peeled and smashed
- 3 tbsp balsamic vinegar

Instructions

Drizzle both sides of the chops with olive oil and season liberally with salt and pepper.

Using a heavy skillet large enough to hold all the chops in a single layer, heat an additional 2 tablespoons of oil over medium heat.

Add the garlic and cook, stirring frequently, until golden in color - do not brown.

Remove the garlic from the pan and raise the heat to medium-high.

Add the pork and cook until nicely browned, 1-1/2 to 2 minutes per side.

Drizzle the chops with the vinegar and continue cooking until the pork is pale pink in the center, turning several times to coat with the pan juices (3 to 4 minutes more).

Transfer to a serving platter and allow to rest for 5 minutes.
